Remembering J. Marc Nattier

MDiv student J. Marc Nattier, Associate Pastor at South Baldwin Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Foley, Ala., passed away April 17, 2023. He was 55 years old.

Marc was in his final year at Lexington Theological Seminary; he had begun his studies in 2016. Marc was passionate about the Hispanic ministry, food pantry, and diaper program at South Baldwin. He also founded The Computer Doctors, which offered computer and VOIP telephone services throughout the southern Gulf Coast. While at LTS, he received both a Beargrass Scholarship and the Edgar DeWitt Jones Scholarship.

In nominating Marc for the Edgar DeWitt Jones Scholarship, Dean Rev. Dr. Loida I. Martell

said, "As a part-time, bivocational minister, Mr. Nattier serves faithfully and lovingly to this small but aging congregation. Mr. Nattier's hope is to help the congregation grow and to encourage them in their volunteer work in the community. He is a bright and wonderful student. His professors hold him in high esteem."

"Marc was serving an aging congregation and was committed to revitalizing it coming out of the pandemic and Hurricane Sally that devastated their church building," said Dr. Narola McFayden. "In the last papers he wrote for me, his love and care for his homebound congregants and his vision to reach out to new audiences was clear." His mentor, Rev. Jim Clifford, said Marc was "always eager to learn and was gracious and appreciative." Dr. Leah Schade, Associate Professor of Preaching and Worship, considered Marc a "positive presence" in her classes and admired his "heart for proclaiming the gospel and ministry to 'the least of these' and his passion for social justice."

Marc will be deeply missed by his wife of 25 years, Christina; their three fur babies, Peanut, Diogee, and Alice; his parents, Joan Teeters and Eldon Nattier; his two sisters, Shelly Mize (Allen) and Sarah Miller (Chris); and his nieces and nephews, Sidney Miller Jones, Carson Mize, Zachary Miller, and Macy Mize. A memorial service was held at South Baldwin Christian Church on Friday, April 21, 2023. The LTS family extends its deepest sympathies to all of Marc's relatives and friends.
